This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 28 July 2011. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the report of the Headquarters Marine Corps Performance Evaluation Review Board (PERB), dated 27 June 2011, a copy of which is attached.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the report of the PERB. The Board noted that the reporting senior stated, in section I ("Directed and Additional Comments") of the contested fitness report, that you continued to "seek completion" of professional military education; and further noted that your Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal was for performance during your entire tour with Aviation Maintenance Squadron One beginning on 1 August 2000, not just the period in question. The Board did not find these comments to be inconsistent with your having received marks in sections D.1 ("Performance") and G.1 ("Professional Military Education") that were lower than those you received in the immediately preceding fitness report from the same reporting senior. Since the Board found no defect in your performance record, it had no basis to remove your failure of selection by the Fiscal Year 2012 Lieutenant Colonel Selection Board. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
