

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

BJG
Docket No: 3577-13
20 February 2014

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 19 February 2014. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

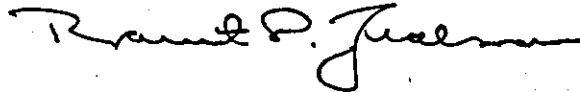

You enlisted in the Navy and entered active duty on 20 August 1990. You received nonjudicial punishment for larceny and wrongful appropriation. On 18 August 1994, you completed your active duty obligated service and were transferred to the Navy Reserve. You were serving in pay grade E-3 and assigned an RE-4 (not recommended for retention) reentry code. At the completion of an initial active duty service obligation, a Sailor must be serving in pay grade E-3 and recommended for promotion to be eligible for retention. On 23 November 1997, you completed your

Navy Reserve obligation, were honorably discharged in pay grade E-3, and not recommended for reenlistment,

In its review of your application, the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and desire to change your reentry code. However, the Board concluded that your reentry code should not be changed due to your failure to meet professional growth criteria and non-recommendation for retention. In view of the above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
