

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

SJN
Docket No: 04046-13
14 May 2014

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

It is noted that since your discharge is less than 15 years old, you may apply to the Naval Discharge Review Board (NDRB) for a possible change of your narrative reason for separation. I have enclosed NDRB's application form for your convenience.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 7 May 2014. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

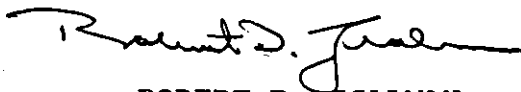

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 6 April 2004. However, based on your Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214), you received an honorable discharge due to misconduct on 5 November 2010. At that time you were assigned an RE-4 reentry code.

The Board, in its review of your application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your record of service and desire to change your RE-4 reentry code. Nevertheless, the Board concluded these factors were not sufficient to warrant such a change of your RE-4 reentry given, what it appears to be, a pattern of misconduct. In this regard, you were assigned the appropriate reentry code based on your circumstances. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

ROBERT D. ZSALMAN
Acting Executive Director
