[REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of 10 USC 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 22 November 2013. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. The Board considered the advisory opinion (A/O) furnished by Headquarters Marine Corps (HQMC) memo 1070 MMSB-13 of 20 Nov 2013, a copy of which is being provided to you.

The Board also notes that you have applied for a correction to your record for an error that allegedly occurred more than 40 years ago. Under the rules governing this Board, an application for a correction of a naval record must be made within three years after the discovery of the alleged error. Failure to file within the prescribed three years may be excused only in cases where the Board finds that it is in the interests of justice to do so.

Although you neglected to assert your claim for an inordinately long period of time without justification and you provided no evidence as to why you did not seek to have the alleged error corrected earlier, the Board still decided to review your case.

A review of your naval record reveals that you were never on active duty during the year of 1962. However, you were only in an inactive status from 26 March 1961 until 18 September 1965, when you were discharged.

Based on the circumstances described above, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director
