

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

Docket No. 490-17
JAN 08 2018

Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of 10 U.S.C. § 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 3 November 2017. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. The advisory opinion provided in Navy Personnel Command memorandum 1160 Ser 813/072 of 22 May 2017 was sent to you on 7 July 2017 for an opportunity to comment prior to being considered by the Board. A copy of this advisory opinion is again enclosed. After the 30-day period for comment expired without a response, the case was presented to the Board.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. You assert that you should have been afforded the opportunity to execute reenlistment on 9 September 2014 in order to receive entitlement to a zone "A" SRB. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighted all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. Nevertheless, the Board determined that you were not eligible to execute reenlistment on 9 September 2014. First, your SRB pre-certification request was denied on 5 August 2014. It appears that your request was denied for not meeting the SRB 35-day rule. Second, you had a valid CWAY quota from August 2014 to September 2014 that expired. Hence, you were not eligible to execute a 4 year reenlistment on 9 September 2014 in order to receive entitlement to a zone "A" SRB. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion. Accordingly, your application has been denied.
