

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

[REDACTED]
Docket No. 802-17

JAN 0 / 2018

[REDACTED]
Dear [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of 10 USC 1552.

Although your application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider your case on its merits. A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 7 December 2017. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

You enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 26 May 1994. You served for over three years without disciplinary incident, but on 23 June 1997 you received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) for violating Uniform Code of Military Justice, Article 112(a) (drug abuse) and received a reduction in rank to E-3, 45 days restriction and extra duties, and forfeitures. On 24 June 1997, you were notified of the initiation of administrative separation proceedings and elected to waive your right to present your case at a board. Due to your misconduct, the discharge authority directed your separation on 9 July 1997 with an Other than Honorable (OTH) characterization of service and a reentry code of RE-4.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. The Board carefully considered your claim of innocent ingestion. However, the Board did not agree with your rationale for relief. The Board highlighted the fact that you voluntarily waived your administrative separation board, which was your opportunity to present the evidence in support of your innocent ingestion claim, as well as any mitigating factors. The Military Personnel Manual, Section 1910-304, dictates that an OTH characterization of service is warranted when conduct involving one or more acts or omissions constitute a significant departure from the conduct expected of members of naval service, specifically, conduct punishable by punitive discharges such as drug abuse. Due to the seriousness of your misconduct, especially in light of the Navy's "zero tolerance" drug policy, your application has been denied.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken at this time. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon the submission of new and material evidence. New evidence is evidence not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

Executive Director
