

[REDACTED] ([REDACTED]) for temporary duty. On 1 November 2021, you detached [REDACTED] and reported as a student to Officer Training Command, [REDACTED] for duty from 3 November 2021 through 24 November 2021 followed by your assignment to [REDACTED] on 30 November 2021 for temporary duty. Your Periodic fitness report for period of report from 1 October 2021 to 30 September 2022 indicates your primary duty was Division Officer and your electronic training jacket shows you qualified for AQD QL2 in 2022, thereby rendering you ineligible for NSW CSRB Phase I on 31 October 2021. Additionally, the Board could not find, nor did you provide evidence of completing an Assistant Department Head tour or being awarded AQD QL3 to garner approval for Phase II. Therefore, in this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion and determined a change to your record is not warranted.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

8/10/2024
