You requested to remove the majority of your current operative extension on record to reenlist for SRB, the Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that on 8 February 2023, you were issued BUPERS order: 0393 with required obligated service to October 2026. On 14 February 2023, NSIPS/ESR shows a 29-month agreement to extend enlistment to meet the OBLISERV. At the time you received orders, there was no Zone “C” SRB for the CTM rate, therefore there was no monetary loss under critical skills SRB. The Board determined that no change to your record is warranted. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
