Dear █

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 28 May 2024. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion contained in Commander, █ █ Command letter 5420 Ser N1/213 of 19 March 2024 and your response to the opinion.

The Board determined that your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. Therefore, the Board determined that a personal appearance was not necessary and considered your case based on the evidence of record.

You requested correction to mobilization/demobilization orders and your DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty ending 16 December 2022 to include Transitional Assistance Management Program (TAMP) eligibility for 180 days. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. However, the Board concluded that you were issued Bureau of Naval Personnel: 0532 (Official Recall Orders) on 22 February 2022. These orders specified, “[y]ou were recalled to active duty under the provisions of Title 10 U.S.C. Section 12310 for 24 months” to report to █ for temporary active duty. Under Title 10, United States Code, Section 12310, a Reservist is ordered to active duty for organizing, administering, recruiting, instructing, or training the reserve component. You were not ordered to a contingency operation detailed under Title 10, U.S.C. Section 101(a)(13)(B) to be eligible for TAMP benefits. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion, and determined a change to your record is not warranted.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,
