Subj: REVIEW OF NAVAL RECORD OF

Ref: (a) Title 10 U.S.C. §1552

Encl: (1) DD Form 149 w/attachments

(2) Case Summary

- 1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, Filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) requesting for an annotation of characterization of service on his Report of Separation from Active Duty (DD Form 214).
- 2. The Board, consisting of _______, reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 24 April 2024 and, pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of Petitioner's application together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.
- 3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, finds as follows:
- a. Before applying to this Board, Petitioner exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. Although Petitioner's application was not filed in a timely manner, the Board found it in the interest of justice to waive the statute of limitations and consider the case on its merits.
 - b. Petitioner enlisted in the Navy and began a period of active duty on 17 November 1971.
- c. On 13 June 1972, Petitioner was convicted by a summary court-martial (SCM) of sleeping on watch.
- d. On 21 December 1973, Petitioner received non-judicial punishment (NJP) for unauthorized absence.
- e. On 10 August 1974, Petitioner received a second NJP for absence from his appointed place of duty.

- f. On 10 October 1974, Petitioner received a third NJP for absence from his appointed place of duty.
- g. On 18 November 1974, at the completion of Petitioner's required active service, Petitioner was issued a DD Form 214 annotating that he was released from active duty and transferred to the naval reserve. Petitioner's DD Form 214 did not reflect a characterization of service. Petitioner's final conduct trait average was 2.8.
 - h. Petitioner contends the following injustices warranting relief:
 - (1) His DD Form 214 does not reflect his character of service;
- (2) He served his full term and received a General (Under Honorable Conditions) character of service;
- (3) A correction of his record should be made to accurately reflect his character of service and if this correction is not made, he will continue to suffer an injustice; and
- (4) He is unable to buy back his military time because his employer will not recognize his DD Form 214 because it does not reflect his character of service.
- i. For purposes of clemency and equity consideration, the Board considered the evidence the Petitioner submitted in support of his application.

CONCLUSION

Upon careful review and consideration of all of the evidence of record, the Board determined that Petitioner's request warrants relief. Specifically, as discussed above, Petitioner's DD Form 214 for the period ending 18 November 1974 does not reflect his characterization of service and requires correction.

The Board noted Petitioner's final conduct trait average was 2.8. Navy regulations in place at the time of Petitioner's discharge recommended a minimum trait average of 3.0 in conduct/military behavior, for a fully Honorable characterization of service; a minimum mark Petitioner failed to achieve due to his record of misconduct. Therefore, the Board concluded Petitioner's character of service should reflect General (Under Honorable Conditions) (GEN).

RECOMMENDATION:

In view of the above, the Board recommends that the following corrective action be taken on Petitioner's naval record in the interests of justice:

That Petitioner be issued a Correction to DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 215), for the period ending 18 November 1974, reflecting that Petitioner's character of service was "General (Under Honorable Conditions)."

That no further changes be made to Petitioner's record.

Subj: REVIEW OF NAVAL RECORD OF

That a copy of this record of proceedings be filed in Petitioner's naval record.

- 4. It is certified that quorum was present at the Board's review and deliberations, and that the foregoing is a true and complete record of the Board's proceedings in the above entitled matter.
- 5. Pursuant to the delegation of authority set out in Section 6(e) of the revised Procedures of the Board for Correction of Naval Records (32 Code of Federal Regulations, Section 723.6(e)), and having assured compliance with its provisions, it is hereby announced that the foregoing corrective action, taken under the authority of reference (a), has been approved by the Board on behalf of the Secretary of the Navy.
