Dear ,

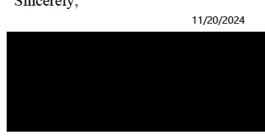

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 31 October 2024. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion contained in Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps memorandum

You requested that your record be corrected to reflect promotion to the rank of Staff Sergeant (SSgt)/E-6 in the Marine Corps Reserve. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. Upon review of your record the Board concluded that after your enlistment in the Marine Corps Reserve on 16 January 1987, you served in the Selected Marine Corps Reserve from 17 March 1987 to 16 March 1993. The highest rank you obtained during this period of service was Lance Corporal (LCpl)/E-3 effective 1 May 1988. You were not recommended for promotion to Corporal/E-4 in January 1991 and April 1991 and signed NAVMC 118 (11), Administrative Remarks acknowledging your understanding and chose not to make a statement. On 12 April 1991, you signed Administrative Remarks regarding being advised of the purpose and procedure for making application to the Board for Correction of Naval Records and the Navy Discharge Review Board. On 7 December 1991, you were assigned to weight control program. On 26 December 1992, you were administratively reduced to Private First Class (PFC)/E-2 for unsatisfactory drill participation. Subsequently, during the 16 January 1992 to 15 January 1993 anniversary year, you earned 19 inactive duty training periods and 15 membership points, which was determined to be a non-qualifying year of satisfactory service. On 20 February 1993, you were not recommendation for promotion to LCpl/E-3 and thereafter transferred to the Individual Ready Reserve on 16 March 1993. On 15 January 1995, you were discharged from the Marine Corps Reserve in the rank of PFC/E2. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion, and determined a change to your record is not warranted.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,
