Dear █

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 11 July 2024. The Board determined that your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. Therefore, the Board determined that a personal appearance was not necessary and considered your case based on the evidence of record. You contend it would be in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner because you were recently informed that, "consideration could be accomplished, even with this duration of time." The Board however, determined this was an insufficient reason to find it in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner. In reaching this conclusion, the Board determined your request should be denied due to the length of time since the alleged "injuries" suffered as a result of personal retaliatory actions due to your district losing recognition as the recruiting district of the year because of your refusal to enlist a non-qualified applicant on the last day of the year.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

7/26/2024
