Dear Petitioner:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 8 August 2024. You contend it would be in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner because of the need to “set the record straight” and correct an issue that “still bothers [you] to this day.” The Board however, determined this was an insufficient reason to find it in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner. In reaching this conclusion, the Board determined your request should be denied due to the length of time since your release from active duty in August 1977.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

8/22/2024
