Dear Petitioner:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 6 September 2024. You contend it would be in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner because you assert that you did not know at the time of your discharge that it was not a medical discharge and an entry level separation.¹ After careful and conscientious consideration, the Board determined this was an insufficient reason to find it in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner. In reaching its decision, the Board determined your request should be denied due to the length of time since your discharge from the Marine Corps in 2001.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

10/3/2024

¹ Note: An entry level separation is a type of military discharge that is given to service members who separate from the military before completing 180 days of service and are given an uncharacterized discharge.
