Dear ██████████

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 4 February 2025. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion contained in Navy Personnel Command letter 5740 PERS-91 of 15 November 2024, which was previously provided to you for comment.

You requested to receive active duty service credit for the period of 14 July through 14 October 1991. The Board, in its review of your entire record and application, carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, to include your assertions. Navy Personnel Command (PERS-91) advised the Board that you have received credit for active duty service completed onboard the ██████████ and while assigned to ██████████. PERS-91 could not find evidence for periods of service from 7 August 1991 through 13 August 1991 or 1 October 1991 through 14 October 1991, nor did you provide sufficient evidence to support your claim. However, PERS-91 credited you with 15 points for Annual Training completed 17 January 2000 to 31 January 2000. Therefore, in this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion and determined a change to your record is not warranted. You may contact the MyNavy Career Center at askmncc.fct@navy.mil with supporting documentation to correct additional Navy Reserve participation.

You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new matters, which will require you to complete and submit a new DD Form 149. New matters are those not previously presented to or considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

2/12/2025
