Dear Petitioner:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 20 March 2025. In your application, you requested correction of your Certificate of Discharge or Release from Active Duty (DD Form 214) to reflect “discharged with 100% disability” and “receipt of back pay from the date [you] left the military.” Noting you indicated post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and “other mental health” in block 14 of the DD Form 149 but did not submit the materials or documentation listed in block 19, the Board sent a letter on 11 February 2025 requesting “additional medical or clinical evidence” in support of your claim so the Board could obtain a medical advisory opinion. When you did not submit any additional information, your case was considered by the Board. In reviewing your application, the Board, noting you were discharged in December 2017, observed you did not provide a sufficient basis to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner. Thus, the Board determined your request should be denied due to the length of time since your discharge and the lack of supporting documentation regarding your contended mental health contentions.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

4/2/2025
