Dear Petitioner:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Section 1552 of Title 10, United States Code. After careful and conscientious consideration of relevant portions of your naval record and your application, the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board) found the evidence submitted insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. Consequently, your application has been denied.

Because your application was submitted with new evidence not previously considered, the Board found it in the interest of justice to review your application. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session on 24 April 2025, has carefully examined your current request. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, relevant portions of your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

The Board determined your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. Therefore, the Board determined a personal appearance was not necessary and considered your case based on the evidence of record.

You previously applied to this Board and were denied. The summary of your service remains substantially unchanged from that addressed in the Board's previous decision.

The Board noted your previous request, Docket No. 2313-21, requested the same relief as your current submission. However, the Board considered your current request to be placed on the disability retirement list based on your new evidence.

After thorough review, the Board determined the new evidence did not overcome the decision of the previous board. Specifically, the Board again determined your documented Department of Veterans Affairs service connected disability conditions, even if they do render you unemployable, do not indicate you were unfit for continued naval service at the time of your retirement from the Navy Reserve. The Board again noted your record indicates you were
