Encl: (1) DD Form 149 w/enclosures
(2) NAVMC 118(11) Administrative Remarks, subj: Assignment to BCP, 24 Oct 24
(3) NAVMC 118(11) Administrative Remarks, subj: Promotion Eligibility, 24 Oct 24
(4) Commander, U.S. Marine Corps Forces Central Command, subj: Erroneous Entry of Body Composition Program Assignment in the case of [Petitioner], 9 Dec 24

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that her naval record be corrected by removing enclosures (2) and (3).

2. The Board, consisting of [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 24 September 2025, and pursuant to its regulations, determined the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval records, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. Before applying to this Board, Petitioner exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice finds the following:

a. On 24 October 2024, Petitioner was issued a Page 11 entry documenting her assignment to the Marine Corps Body Composition Program (BCP). On the same date, Petitioner was notified regarding eligibility for promotion due to her assignment to the BCP. Petitioner acknowledged both entries and elected not to make a statement. Enclosures (2) and (3).

b. In correspondence dated 9 December 2024, the Commander, U.S. Marine Corps Forces Central Command notified the applicable Personnel Administration Center that Petitioner's formal body composition assignment exceeded the 60-day timeline established by reference (b). Accordingly, he ordered that all entries be removed from Petitioner's military records as a result of not complying with reference (b). Enclosure (4).

Subj: REVIEW OF NAVAL RECORD OF [REDACTED]
XXX XX [REDACTED] USMC

c. In her application, Petitioner contends she was never assigned to the BCP. The command was aware that she was not to be assigned to the BCP if she was within standards by 24 October 2024. Petitioner claims the counseling entry was still uploaded into her official record after being told she was not going to be assigned to the BCP. Enclosure (1).

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, the Board finds the existence of an error warranting relief:

The Board noted that according to reference (b), Commanders are responsible for ensuring the BCP processing period is completed as soon as possible and not longer than 60 days. The Board noted enclosure (4) noting that Petitioner's assignment to the BCP exceeded the required timeline and directing the removal of the contested counseling entry. Accordingly, the Board determined that the counseling entry assigning Petitioner to the BCP, and the promotion restriction entry will be removed.

RECOMMENDATION

In view of the above, the Board directs the following corrective action.

Petitioner's naval record be corrected by removing enclosures (2) and (3).

Any material or entries inconsistent with or relating to the Board's recommendation be corrected, removed, or completely expunged from Petitioner's record, and that no such entries or material be added to the record in the future. This includes, but is not limited to, all information systems or database entries that reference or discuss the expunged material.

4. It is certified that a quorum was present at the Board's review and deliberations, and that the foregoing is a true and complete record of the Board's proceedings in the above entitled matter.

5. Pursuant to the delegation of authority set out in Section 6(e) of the revised Procedures of the Board for Correction of Naval Records (32 Code of Federal Regulation, Section 723.6(e)) and having assured compliance with its provisions, it is hereby announced that the foregoing corrective action, taken under the authority of reference (a), has been approved by the Board on behalf of the Secretary of the Navy.
