

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
701 S. COURTHOUSE ROAD, SUITE 1001
ARLINGTON, VA 22204-2490

Docket No. 6074-25
Ref: Signature Date

Dear

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 24 June 2025. You contend it would be in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner because, although more than three years have passed since your discharge, the Board should consider your application in the interest of justice under 10 U.S.C. § 1552(b). Further, you aver at the time of your separation from service, you suffered from physical conditions that significantly impaired your ability to serve, and those same conditions continue to impair your physical mobility. Thus, you argue, given the compelling health factors, it would be in the interest of justice for the Board to consider your petition despite the time lapse. After careful and conscientious consideration, the Board determined that these were insufficient reasons to find it in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner. In reaching its decision, the Board determined your request should be denied due to the length of time since your discharge from the Navy.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

7/8/2025
