Dear Petitioner:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 24 June 2025. You contend it would be in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner because you did not know about the rules on how your naval record could be updated or changed and that you had to meet with counsel to find out about how to apply for medical. After careful and conscientious consideration, the Board determined that these were insufficient reasons to find it in the interest of justice to excuse your failure to submit your application in a timely manner. In reaching its decision, the Board determined your request should be denied due to the length of time since your discharge from the Marine Corps in 1993.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

7/8/2025
