To: Secretary of the Navy

Subj: REVIEW OF NAVAL RECORD ICO

Ref: (a) Title 10 U.S.C. § 1552

(b) Title 38 U.S.C. Chp 33

(c) BUPERSNOTE 1780

Encl: (1) DD Form 149

(2) Subject's Naval record

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that his naval record be corrected to allocate unused Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits to his eligible dependent children.

2. The Board, consisting of [REDACTED] reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 2 April 2026 and pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, found that, before applying to this Board, he exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board made the following findings:

a. The Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Act (Post-9/11 GI Bill, Public Law 110-252) was signed into law on 30 June 2008 and became effective on 1 August 2009. The bill provides financial support for education and housing for service members with at least 90 days of service on or after 11 September 2001. The act also includes provision for qualifying service members to transfer education benefits to their eligible dependents. General descriptions of the essential components of the law were widely available, beginning in summer 2008 but specific implementing guidance was not published until summer 2009.

b. In accordance with reference (c), an individual may transfer a portion or all of their unused Post-9/11 GI Bill entitlement to their spouse and/or children. Entitlement for existing dependents may be modified or revoked after separating from the Armed Forces (active duty/Selected Reserve). However, entitlement may not be transferred to a new dependent or a dependent with "0" months of transferred entitlement once the transferor is no longer a member of the Armed Forces.

c. On 2 July 2002, Petitioner entered active duty.

d. On 15 April 2005, Petitioner married spouse [REDACTED] and had two children: [REDACTED] born on 22 July 2007; and [REDACTED] born on 6 June 2011.

e. On 14 August 2015, Petitioner reenlisted for 6 years.

f. On 19 October 2015, Petitioner submitted Transfer of Education Benefits (TEB) application and requested to allocate 12 months of education benefits his spouse. The Service approved the TEB application with an obligation end date of 18 October 2019.

g. On 1 September 2020, Petitioner reenlisted for 2 years.

h. On 31 August 2022, Petitioner transferred to the Fleet Reserve.

i. The Benefits for Education Administrative Services Tool (BEAST) Education Summary reflects that Petitioner's spouse used 12 months of education benefits; last payment was 15 November 2016.

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, the Board finds the existence of an error warranting the following corrective action. Petitioner was approved to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits and completed his service obligation, however failed to allocate benefits to each dependent prior to transferring to the Fleet Reserve. Although Petitioner did not complete the proper administrative requirements, the Board found that had he received clear counseling from his command regarding the inability to distribute the education benefits upon retiring, he would have taken appropriate action. Therefore, the Board determined that under this circumstance, relief is warranted

RECOMMENDATION

That Petitioner's naval record be corrected, where appropriate, to show that:

Petitioner allocated education benefits to [REDACTED]/12 months, [REDACTED]/12 months and [REDACTED]/12 months through the MilConnect TEB portal prior to transferring to the Fleet Reserve effective 1 September 2022.

Note: Commander, Navy Personnel Command (PERS-311) will ensure Petitioner's BEAST Family Member History is updated with the aforementioned approved allocation of education benefits.
