DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS

Docket No. 9408-25
Ref: Signature Date

[redacted]

Dear Petitioner:

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 18 December 2025. The Board determined your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. In your application, you seek to "change [your] discharge to Honorable and change RE Code," because you "performed Honorably and volunteered to service in [redacted] advance party" and that you "got backlash for reporting a junior Marine for having an affair with [your] spouse at the time" and that your "command didn't want to push an issue when [you] had a week left of active duty." In reviewing your application, the Board, noting you were discharged in 1992, observed you did not provide a sufficient basis to excuse the failure to submit the application in a timely manner. Thus, the Board was not willing to waive the three-year statute of limitations due to the length of time since your discharge.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

1/13/2026
