(2) Subject's Naval record

1. Pursuant to the provisions of reference (a), Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records (Board), requesting that his naval record be corrected to establish eligibility to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits to his eligible dependents.

2. The Board, consisting of ██████████, ██████████, and ██████████ reviewed Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice on 23 April 2026 and pursuant to its regulations, determined that the corrective action indicated below should be taken on the available evidence of record. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of the enclosures, relevant portions of Petitioner's naval record, and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies.

3. The Board, having reviewed all the facts of record pertaining to Petitioner's allegations of error and injustice, found that, before applying to this Board, he exhausted all administrative remedies available under existing law and regulations within the Department of the Navy. The Board made the following findings:

a. The Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Act (Post-9/11 GI Bill, Public Law 110-252) was signed into law on 30 June 2008 and became effective on 1 August 2009. The bill provides financial support for education and housing for service members with at least 90 days of service on or after 11 September 2001. The act also includes provision for qualifying service members to transfer education benefits to their eligible dependents. General descriptions of the essential components of the law were widely available, beginning in summer 2008 but specific implementing guidance was not published until summer 2009.

b. In accordance with reference (c), the option to transfer a Service member's unused education benefits to an eligible dependent requires a 4-year additional service obligation at the time of election. Additionally, the policy specified that Enlisted Marines elect to transfer education benefits (TEB) concurrent with submission of reenlistment/extension request and had 60 days from the date of TEB web application to incur the required obligated service or the TEB request would be rejected. Furthermore, the policy directs Marines to periodically check the status of their application; a denied TEB application requires Marines to take corrective action and reapply with a new service obligation end date.

c. On 16 November 2004, Petitioner entered active duty.

d. In May 2008, Petitioner married spouse [REDACTED].

e. On 13 January 2016, Petitioner reenlisted for 4 years.

f. In April 2018, Petitioner's children, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were born.

g. On 2 July 2019, Petitioner submitted TEB application with less than 4 years remaining on contract and requested to allocate 12 months of education benefits to each dependent. On 3 July 2019, Petitioner signed Post 9/11 Educational Benefits Transferability Commitment and Statement of Understanding; the form was signed by the Commanding Officer on 19 July 2019.

h. On 19 July 2019, Petitioner's Commanding Officer signed NAVMC 11537, Reenlistment, Extension, and Lateral Move request recommending him for reenlistment. On 14 August 2019, Petitioner's reenlistment request was approved, and he reenlisted on 27 August 2019 for 4 years.

i. On 6 September 2019, Petitioner's TEB application was rejected by the Service indicating, "Disapproved-SM [Service Member] has not committed to the required additional service time."

j. On 10 November 2022, Petitioner reenlisted for 2 years.

k. On 30 November 2024, Petitioner transferred to the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve with 20 years and 15 days of active duty service.

CONCLUSION

Upon review and consideration of all the evidence of record, the Board finds the existence of an injustice warranting the following corrective action. Petitioner met the basic eligibility criteria to transfer Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits and reenlisted within 60 days of submitting his TEB application in accordance with reference (c). The Board surmised that Petitioner TEB application was denied due to administrative oversight. Moreover, Petitioner completed over 5 years of active duty service after submitting his 2 July 2019 TEB application before transferring to the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve on 30 November 2024, thereby meeting the spirit and intent of reference (b). Therefore, the Board determined that under these circumstances, relief is warranted.
