Dear █,

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

Your application was not filed in a timely manner. A three-member panel of the Board, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 5 February 2026. The Board determined that your personal appearance, with or without counsel, would not materially add to their understanding of the issues involved. In your application, you requested for your Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty (DD Form 214) reflect the proper rank and the Naval Reserve Meritorious Service Medal (NRMSM).¹ In reviewing your application, the Board, noting you were released from active duty in September 1969 and discharged from the Navy Reserve in December 1974, observed you did not provide a sufficient basis to excuse the failure to submit your application in a timely manner and was unwilling to waive the three-year statute of limitations due to the length of time since your discharge.

In the absence of sufficient new evidence for reconsideration, the decision of the Board is final, and your only recourse would be to seek relief, at no cost to the Board, from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

2/7/2026

¹ The Board noted that in accordance with SECNAVINST 1650.1H, the period of eligibility for the NRMSM is 4 years. Regarding your missing medals, the Board noted that you will need to contact the National Personnel Record Center by completing and sending a Standard Form 180 for any missing medals.
