1. In accordance with subsection (b) of reference (a) and the terms of the settlement agreement in the case of Farrell, et. al. v. U.S. Department of Defense, et. al., as implemented by reference (b), the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Manpower and Reserve Affairs) (ASN (M&RA)) filed enclosure (1) with the Board for Correction of Naval Records, hereinafter referred to as the Board, on behalf of a group of similarly harmed Sailors and Marines whose DD Form 214 reflects that they were discharged due to their sexual orientation with less than a fully honorable characterization of service. The Subject, hereinafter referred to as Petitioner, filed enclosure (2) with the Board, thus opting in to this group application review. A preliminary review of enclosure (3) revealed that Petitioner met the criteria for inclusion in this group application.

2. A three-member panel of the Board, meeting in executive session, conducted an individualized review of the Subject's naval record on 19 February 2026, and found sufficient evidence of an injustice warranting the corrective action recommended in paragraph 5 below. Documentary material considered by the Board included the enclosures; relevant portions of the Subject's naval record; and applicable statutes, regulations, and policies, to include references (c) and (d).

3. Factual Background. Following are the relevant facts of Petitioner's case based upon review of her naval record:

a. Petitioner enlisted in the U.S. Navy and began a period of active duty on 17 March 1992. See enclosure (3).

b. On 7 May 1993, Petitioner received nonjudicial punishment (NJP) in violation of Article 125, Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ).¹ Her punishment consisted of 45 days of restriction and extra duties and forfeiture of $456.00 pay per month for two months. See enclosure (4).

c. On 7 May 1993, Petitioner was formally notified that she was being considered for administrative discharge from the Navy by reason of homosexuality and commission of a serious offense. See enclosure (5).

d. On the same date, Petitioner acknowledged the notification referenced in paragraph 3c above and waived her procedural rights to consult with counsel and to have her case heard before an administrative discharge board. See enclosure (6).

e. On 18 May 1993, Petitioner's commanding officer recommended that Petitioner be discharged from the Navy by reason of homosexuality and commission of a serious offense with an other than honorable (OTH) characterization of service.² See enclosure (7).

f. By message dated 24 May 1993, the separation authority directed Petitioner be discharged from the Navy with an OTH characterization of service by reason of homosexuality.³ See enclosure (8).

g. On 9 June 1993, Petitioner was discharged from the Navy with an OTH by reason of homosexuality. See enclosure (3).

² Petitioner's commanding officer's recommendation indicated that Petitioner provided a statement to the ship's master-at-arms acknowledging that she was to be married to the female Sailor with whom she had engaged in consensual sodomy.

³ Only one narrative reason for separation and separation code can appear on a DD Form 214. The separation authority specified that the Subject's DD Form 214 should include the code related to discharge for homosexuality rather than for commission of a serious offense, but she was processed for administrative separation upon both bases.

4. Conclusions.

a. In accordance with reference (c), the Board should normally grant requests to change the narrative reason for a discharge, requests to re-characterize the discharge to honorable, and/or requests to change the reentry code to an immediately-eligible-to-reenter category when both of the following conditions are met: (1) the original discharge was based solely on the former "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" (DADT) or similar policy in place prior to enactment of DADT, and (2) there were no aggravating factors in the record, such as misconduct. While the record contains an instance of additional misconduct—specifically, one nonjudicial punishment for consensual sodomy—the Board determined that the conduct was directly related to the bases for Petitioner administrative separation; however, the separation remained predicated on Petitioner's homosexual conduct. Additionally, the Board noted that Petitioner's separate request for rank/grade restoration falls outside the scope of this application. Notwithstanding that request, the Board found Petitioner's case falls within the general guidance of reference (c).

b. In accordance with reference (d), the Board considered, amongst other factors, that homosexuality is now permitted within the military and that a current Service member under the same circumstances today would therefore reasonably expect to receive a more favorable outcome than Petitioner received; that although there was one nonjudicial punishment in Petitioner's record, she was solely discharged due to her sexuality; and the passage of time since Petitioner's discharge. Based on these factors, the Board determined that equitable relief is warranted in the interests of justice.

c. The Board also found an injustice in the fact that the narrative reason for separation reflected on Petitioner's DD Form 214 includes a reference to her sexual orientation. Due to her narrative reason for separation, Petitioner must disclose personal information regarding her sexual orientation and/or previous sexual activity whenever she has cause to prove her military service for whatever reason. Other Service members are not required to reveal such personal information when providing evidence of their former military service. This constitutes an unreasonable burden and violation of Petitioner's privacy interests.

5. Recommendation. Based upon the conclusions in paragraph 4 above, the Board recommends the following partial corrective action be taken on Petitioner's naval record:

a. That Petitioner be issued a new DD Form 214 reflecting that her service ending on 9 June 1993 was characterized as "Honorable"; that her narrative reason for separation was "Secretarial Authority"; that her separation authority was "MILPERSMAN 3630900"; that her separation code was "JFF"; and that her reentry code was "RE-1."

b. That Petitioner be issued an Honorable Discharge Certificate.

c. That a copy of this record of proceedings be filed in Petitioner's naval record.

d. That no further corrective action be taken on Petitioner's naval record.

6. It is certified that quorum was present at the Board's review and deliberations and that the foregoing is a true and complete record of the Board's proceedings in the above titled matter. I have assured compliance with the provisions of reference (e).
